

Syril Pathmanathan

Syril Pathmanathan is a senior vice president of D. E. Shaw & Co. (London), LLP and head of the Regulatory Capital Optimization Strategies team within the D. E. Shaw group's Asset-Backed Strategies investment unit. Prior to joining the firm in 2016, Mr. Pathmanathan was a director at Credit Suisse AG, where he last was head of capital and risk solutions structuring and before that served as head of Asia bank solutions. Prior to that, he was a partner at Venn Partners LLP, a boutique investment management and advisory firm focused on de-risking opportunities in Europe. From 2005 to 2010, Mr. Pathmanathan worked in fixed income and investment banking at Credit Suisse. He began his career in 1999 at Oliver, Wyman & Co. (subsequently acquired by Marsh & McLennan Cos., Inc.), where he developed risk management tools and frameworks for use by banks globally. Mr. Pathmanathan earned his M.A. in economics from the University of Cambridge.