

2023 Nominating Committee Information

Richard Montague HSBC

Richard Montague is Head of Wholesale Credit Portfolio Management at HSBC with responsibility for the wholesale loanbook. Previous roles include Global Head of the RWA Optimization Unit with coverage responsibility for c1,000 dilutive clients and Global Head of Credit & Lending at HSBC with responsibility all forms of Lending to Banking clients as chair of Capital Allocation Committee, management of the Worry-Watch-Monitor process, and oversight of Portfolio Management. Prior to this role included Head of Global Banking, Netherlands, Head of Leveraged & Acquisition Finance, France, and Head of Strategic Financing Advisory, France

Prior to joining HSBC in 2001, Richard spent seven years at Schroders, in various post across Financial Markets, Investment Banking, Investment Management and Group Strategy where he executed numerous transactions culminating in the sale of Schroder Investment Banking to Citi - Salomon Smith Barney

Richard was educated at Eerde in the Netherlands and holds a First Class Honours Degree Engineering & Economics and a Doctorate in Structural Engineering from Dundee University, Scotland.